

WELCOME TO
BRAY
GATEWAY TO THE GARDEN OF IRELAND

BRAY...

THE WARMTH OF OUR WELCOME!

Bray has something for everyone... from its rich heritage and splendid scenery to excellent transport links, a vibrant arts scene, a bustling town centre and thriving industry. The Town's history predates Norman times, when Strongbow, granted lands on behalf of the Crown, to Sir Walter de Riddlesford circa 1171. Thanks to the arrival of the railway in 1854, the bustling town developed as a popular seaside resort and became known as the "Brighton of Ireland". Bray has a wide range of festivals and activities to keep visitors entertained throughout the year. Bray Air Display continues to be one of Ireland's largest free Air Displays attracting huge numbers to Bray's Promenade to view the over-sea air display. Enjoy Bray's splendid seafront, walk the magnificent Bray Head walk to Greystones, visit Sea life or Killruddery House and Gardens. Enjoy an evening in any of our lively hostellers, choose from a wide range of tempting restaurants to dine in, or stay in our excellent hotels. Why not base yourself in Bray while visiting Dublin and County Wicklow. Bray, (Bré or Brí Cualann) is known as the "Gateway to the Garden of Ireland", due to its location in Northeast Wicklow, Ireland's most scenic county.

Beach Huts ©Aoife McNulty

Sunset Bray Harbour - ©Aoife McNulty

Promenade - ©Aoife McNulty

Take a walk....

Along Bray's mile long Victorian Promenade which starts in the Harbour area near Martello Terrace, the former home of James Joyce author of Ulysses.

Take the famous Cliff Walk from Bray to Greystones with breath taking views along the east coast. This natural, 7km unspoilt trail is a must for the outdoor enthusiast.

Climb Bray Head to the Cross at its peak and enjoy panoramic views of north Wicklow and south Dublin.

Bray Head - photo Aoife McNulty

don't miss....

The Beautiful Killruddery House & Gardens:

Killruddery House and Gardens offers a wide range of events and activities for the whole family, including house tours, gardens, Farm (free entry & parking), and Tea Room.

our attractions....

The Victorian Promenade & Bray Head

Festina Lente

our activities...

Great Adventures ©Aoife McNulty

great cycling

Bray Bowl

Bray Bowl is on the Quinsborough Road, close to the DART station. It has a wide variety of activities to suit all ages - including 10 Pin Bowling, Pool, Snooker, American Pool, Quasar Laser and a state of the art Video Arcade. www.braybowl.ie

The Merrill Leisure Club

Squirrel's Scramble

Brennanstown Riding School is one of Ireland's best known Equestrian Establishments. Catering for both adults and children (6 years and over) in picturesque stables just outside Bray off the N11 at Exit 7, the Centre offers riding lessons, cross country riding and trekking in the Wicklow Mountains!

Swans - photo Aoife McNulty

Bray Harbour & its Swans
Bray Harbour has a thriving colony of swans which need to be nurtured and protected. Bray Harbour is a hub of activity for the swans, while also a tranquil picturesque location, especially on relaxing summer evenings.

Getting to BRAY

From Dublin Airport:

Transport: Bus Route 133, or Aircoach
Journey approx 1 hour 5 mins
Road: M50 Southbound to N11/M11

From Dublin City:

Public Transport: DART (train) from Connolly Station, Dublin.
Journey approx 45 minutes
Bus Route 145, from Hueston Station, Dublin, Journey approx 1 hour
Road: N11/M11 Southbound
Exit at junction 6 for Bray

BRAY TOURIST INFORMATION OFFICE

Civic Offices, Main Street, Bray.
T. +353 (0)1 286 7128 e. braytourism@wicklowcoco.ie
Find us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/braytown
www.bray.ie

Bray has it all

- Heritage, festivals & walks
- Fine food & mighty craic
- Award winning aquarium & historic house
- Magical gardens & gateway to Wicklow

www.townmaps.ie

background image: ©Aoife McNulty